

AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.

AFGHAN HOUND BREEDERS' CUP RULES SUMMARY

ELIGIBILITY

Any Afghan Hound eligible for entry in an AKC sanctioned show, and who is at least 6 months and less than 21 months old on the AHBC date. A litter may only be entered once at the Breeders' Cup.

ENTRY

All entries are to be made in the name of the breeder and only the signature of that breeder. Dogs can be entered and exhibited by any person in good standing with the AKC.

CLASSES

6-9, 9-12, 12-15, 15-18 and 18-21 months in both dogs and bitches. Class winners compete for the BEST IN AFGHAN HOUND BREEDERS' CUP and BEST OPPOSITE SEX IN AFGHAN HOUND BREEDERS' CUP.

SCHEDULE

As shown on the title page of this premium list.

JUDGE SELECTION

Each breeder entering a litter(s) can nominate TWO names for judge FOR EACH LITTER ENTERED. The nominations must be received by the Show Secretary by October 17, 2011. The nominees need only be persons in good standing with the AKC, and do not need to be licensed judges. The six nominees for judge with the highest number of nominations will be presented to the entered breeders for final vote. The list will be presented in alphabetical order. The entered breeders will receive one ballot for each litter entered, and will vote for two names.

PRIZES AWARDED

All trophies and cash prizes will be presented in the ring to the person showing the dog. The AHCA disclaims any liability for prizes after the judging is over.

A large AHBC Perpetual Trophy will be awarded to any breeder who wins Best in AHBC three times. The name of each year's winning breeder will be engraved on this trophy.

A replica of the Dewey Abrams Memorial Trophy will be awarded to the winning breeder each year.

Rosettes will be awarded to the owners of each placement.

65% of the entry money will be distributed. 60% of that money will be distributed to the individual class placements as follows:

1 st - 45%	3 rd - 15%
2 nd - 30%	4 th - 10%

The remaining 40% of award money is divided among breeders of Best and BOS in AHBC with 25% of breeder's awards going to the owners of the sires.

All trophies and monies will go to the handler of the dog in the ring for distribution. The breeder should get the trophy and the owner should get the ribbon. Unlike a Sweepstakes, the breeder, not the handler, gets the prize money.
